Children's Guidelines

Scorpio Rising Films does not target children in the marketing of movies, DVDs and videos that are rated R for violence. This Site does not collect online contact information from children under the age of 13. If you are under 13, do not e-mail, contact the Site, ask us to e-mail you, or submit information to the Site. Site parents should use to evaluate movie content and rating sponsored by the MPAA: Mpaa.org, among other things, describes the rating system and includes a database listing almost every movie rated since the commencement of the rating system in 1968. "

Filmratings.com is a separate site devoted exclusively to providing ratings information on all rated movies, including the reasons for the ratings on recent releases.

Parentalguide.org was established by MPAA in conjunction with the electronic game, music, cable and television broadcast industries. The site is intended to provide parents with one central site where they can obtain information about each of the ratings systems that have been developed in those industries.

Security

This Site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. The ISP provides a firewall for application security, and only authorized users (assigned identification and password) will have access to the database.
